FREE CHILDREN'S DRAWING WORKSHOP

Saturday 1 June 2019 | 2.00 – 4.00 pm | Swedenborg House, 20/21 Bloomsbury Way, London WC1A 2TH | Refreshments and materials provided | FREE | Children to be accompanied by a parent or carer

Come and explore the secrets of Swedenborg House! We are delighted, after the overwhelming popularity of our previous workshops, to announce a third drawing workshop by acclaimed artist, author and designer Sally Kindberg. Sally will be leading the drawing classes for children (aged 6 +) on the many fascinating items on display at Swedenborg House, and on Swedenborg himself. Visitors will be led through a unique exploration of our rare collection of artefacts and treasures, including strange mechanical inventions, powdered wigs, duck feather pens and angels.

Book your place by emailing avery@swedenborg.org.uk

SALLY KINDBERG is the author and illustrator of the popular children's book series Draw It! and The Comic Strip History of Space, both published by Bloomsbury. Sally's work has appeared in numerous children's books, in comic strips for CBBC and in The Guardian. She has also delivered creative workshops at Edinburgh Festival, the Wellcome Collection and in places as diverse as Beijing and the Outer Hebrides and is currently working on a graphic story called Sputnik.
